

The Personal Pitch.

We will sharpen your skills to deliver an engaging Personal Pitch where you can confidently talk about yourself and your experience at the drop of a hat. You will:

- Use when interacting with anyone – senior managers, new clients, interviewers, investors, networkers.
- Promote yourself with authority and communicate your strengths and accomplishments with confidence.
- Develop gravitas, credibility and authority.
- Network more and build connections.
- Put yourself forward where you might previously have been held back.

How to succeed in job interviews.

We will help you position yourself with authority and articulate your value and experience matching the company requirements and making you the obvious choice for selection. You will:

- Profile and identify the key priorities and points of influence for the interviewing company.
- Develop and position your Personal Pitch to match job requirements, benefits and pain points of target company.
- Build rapport and trust for constructive relationships.
- Communicate with credibility and authority - communicating your strengths and accomplishments with confidence.
- Position yourself with credibility for interview success.

The Confidence & Authority Builder.

How to rewire your brain for confident communication enabling you to consistently perform at your best and communicate with gravitas and authority.

- Communicate with influence - with clients, peers, potential clients, customers, investors and networks.
- Own the room in large and small interactions.
- Perform at your best in high-pressured meetings and situations - handling your nerves and using them effectively.
- Build rapport and trust for constructive relationships.
- Develop the mindset you need for credible communication.